

Kimball Scout Reservation

Frequently Asked Questions

Why has the Council decided to not offer Scout Camp in 2019?

Please see the resolution as passed by the Executive Board. The Background Summary details the information used to make this decision.

Is the Las Vegas Area Council selling Kimball Scout Reservation?

The Transition Committee appointed by the Council Executive Board is currently evaluating options for the Kimball Scout Reservation. While a potential sale is an option there is nothing imminent. The Operations group will work to ensure that the best possible outcome is reached.

Where should our Unit go camping?

There are 20 Boy Scout Resident camps located within 500 miles of Las Vegas, 11 of which are within 325 miles. The Las Vegas Area Council is currently working to partner with other Councils in providing camping opportunities. We will post a list soon of places to go camping. There are many choices available for all Scouts BSA units.

What is the potential use of Kimball Scout Reservation?

Kimball Scout Reservation can currently be used for overnight camping. Our plan is to continue to allow Scouting units for that purpose. Moving forward services may become limited.

What will happen to all of the equipment at Kimball Scout Reservation?

The Operations Group will study the disposition of equipment. The Las Vegas Area Council will continue to maintain much of the program equipment. The program equipment will be made available to troops for a small fee. Program equipment can include guns, bows, arrows, canoes, and kayaks.

What about Camp Card Camperships?

Discussion about different options is currently happening. Details will be made available as soon as they are finalized.

Will this affect Levi Levi Scout Camp?

Yes. The resolution passed by the Executive Board of the Las Vegas Area Council included halting program at Levi Levi Scout Camp. The Council will work with our Troops to find a place to camp this summer.

Does this mean that NYLT and Wood Badge are cancelled?

No, these training events will still occur at Kimball Scout Reservation as schedule.
